

GIANT STEPS

for African Girls

Lexington 3K Walk/Run
Help Build a Girls' School in Tanzania, East Africa

Most women of this generation in Tanzania have not learned to read or write.

With your help this generation of girls will read, write, and much more!

DATE: SUNDAY April 26, 2009

REGISTER: 3 pm

WALK: 4 pm

PLACE: UK FOOTBALL STADIUM (green lot)

TANZANIA

Reach $100 Pledge Goal and receive free
Giant Steps  t-shirt!

Pizza  and Prizes after Walk!

Can't do the walk but want to donate? Make tax-deductible donation payable to: St. Joseph/Giant Steps and mail to: PO. Box 21813
Lexington, KY 40522-1813

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Flaget Nally, a Bardstown native and former UK student, returned in 2008 from 3 years in Tanzania where she worked with those in physical and economic need. After witnessing the mistreatment of women and girls, mainly rooted in the lack of education, she and others are joining forces to raise funds to build a K-12 boarding school for girls in Bukoba, Tanzania.

Register and download pledge form at educateafricangirls.org